

Prometheus Energy Executive to Present at LNG-Fueled Drilling & Fracturing 2012

Addressing the demand of LNG fuel solutions and supply for E&P companies

Houston, TX, - June 11, 2012 – Prometheus Energy announced that the company will be presenting at an upcoming LNG-Fueled Drilling & Fracturing Conference in Houston.

On Thursday, June 14, Prometheus Energy's Manager of Business Development Mike Fradette will be presenting at the Zeus 2012 LNG-Fueled Drilling & Fracturing Conference at the Houston Magnolia Hotel.

The demand for liquefied natural gas (LNG) as fuel source for drilling rigs and fracturing operations is increasing at an accelerating rate. The conference will enable producers, contractors, equipment and service suppliers, as well as investors to learn the latest in LNG solutions. The conference will include a Prometheus LNG roundtable and innovative thought leadership on key customer issues and challenges, and the benefits of natural gas conversion.

Fradette's presentation will be available at www.PrometheusEnergy.com post the conference date.

About Prometheus Energy

Prometheus Energy is one of the largest and fastest growing suppliers of liquefied natural gas (LNG) to the industrial sector in North America. Prometheus provides turnkey fuel solutions to convert industrial users of diesel, propane and other crude-derived fuels to clean, domestic, secure LNG, resulting in reduced fuel cost and environmental footprint. The company is vertically integrated from LNG production through distribution, onsite storage, and vaporization. A pioneer in the industrial LNG market, Prometheus developed first-of-their-kind conversions of industrial fuel consumers to LNG in numerous sectors, and received an Award of Excellence at the 2011 Platt's Energy Awards in recognition of its industry leadership. Prometheus Energy Group has more than 60 employees in offices in Houston, TX, Redmond, WA, and through its joint venture entity, LNG Silesia Sp.zo.o, Katowice, Poland. Prometheus Energy is privately held by Shell Technology Ventures Fund 1 B.V. and Black River Asset Management LLC, a wholly owned but independently managed subsidiary of Cargill.
